

"This is the book I have been waiting for. With intellectual rigor wrapped in a language which makes the voice of the authors easily heard, a generous relationship develops between the reader and these brilliant thinkers."

- Toby Sigrun Herman, MHR, ECO, President:
International Family Therapy Association

"Harlene Anderson and Diane Gehart are to be congratulated! They have brought together in one volume a group of leading-edge systemic scholar practitioners and edited an outstanding collection of chapters that will inspire and enthuse generations of trainees, supervisors, and mental health clinicians."

- Arlene Vetere, Ph.D., Deputy Director of the PsychD Programme in Clinical Psychology,
University of Surrey, UK

"This book is an invitation to a conversation, a dialogue that can continue beyond its pages, into the reader's professional and personal communities."

- Susan H. McDaniel, Ph.D., Professor and Director of Family Programs & the Wynne Center for Family Research in the Department of Psychiatry, University of Rochester School of Medicine & Dentistry

COLLABORATIVE THERAPY:

RELATIONSHIPS AND CONVERSATIONS THAT MAKE A DIFFERENCE

EDITED BY HARLENE ANDERSON AND DIANE GEHART

Collaborative Therapy: Relationships and Conversations That Make a Difference provides in-depth accounts of the everyday practice of postmodern collaborative therapy, vibrantly illustrating how dialogic conversation can transform lives, relationships, and entire communities. Pioneers and leading professionals from diverse disciplines, contexts, and cultures describe in detail what they do in their therapy and training practices, including their work with psychosis, incarceration, aging, domestic violence, eating disorders, education, and groups. In addition to the therapeutic applications, the book demonstrates the usefulness of a postmodern collaborative approach to the domains of education, research, and organizations.
